LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

(a.) A printed copy of such Bill:

(b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:

(c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

CERTIFICATES OF INCORPORATION.

"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 17002.

NOTICE is hereby given that "Spencer Realities, Ltd.," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 30th day of January, 1940.

The Company is authorized to issue ten thousand shares without nominal or par value.

The address of its registered office is corner View and Broad Streets, Victoria, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To buy, purchase, contract for, lease, or otherwise acquire, take, own, possess, use, hold for investment, or otherwise generally deal in and with, sell, convey, exchange, mortgage, pledge, lease, or otherwise hypothecate or dispose of grants of fee-simple or lesser estates, rights, powers, options, or privileges and interests of any nature whatsoever in and to real and personal property wherever situate, and to manage, operate, maintain, alter, reconstruct, let, and develop the same:

(b.) To build, construct, equip, maintain, repair, demolish, and reconstruct any buildings, stores, warehouses, or other structures and the fixtures thereunto obtaining, necessary or desirable for the better carrying-on of any business calculated to improve the use of any property which the Company may own or acquire:

(c.) To pay for any real and personal or real or personal property acquired by the Company, either in cash or shares, with or without preferred or deferred rights in respect of dividend or repayment of capital, or otherwise, or in or by any securities which the Company has power to issue, or partly in one mode and partly in another, and generally upon such terms as the directors may determine, including granting options of taking up shares of the Company or securities which the Company has power to issue:

(d.) To mortgage and charge all or any of the real and personal property of the Company present or future, and the undertaking of the Company, and all or any of the uncalled capital of the Company, and in connection therewith or otherwise to issue debentures, mortgage debentures, debenture stock, or notes payable to bearer, or otherwise, and to attach to any such security or securities such rights and to issue the same upon and subject to such conditions as the directors may determine; and to issue debentures as irredeemable or redeemable, and when such debentures are redeemable to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such debentures:

(e.) To borrow or raise money for any of the purposes of the Company:

(f.) To invest its money, and generally to lend and advance its money to any person or company without security, or upon such security and terms and subject to such conditions as may seem expedient, and to guarantee the performance of any contract by any person or persons or company:

(g.) Subject to section 146 of the "Companies Act," to take or otherwise acquire and hold the shares, stock, or debentures of any company wheresoever incorporated, to accept and receive shares or other securities of any other company at such price or valuation as the directors shall determine in exchange for debentures or other securities which the Company has power to issue, and to sell or reissue with or without guarantee; or otherwise deal with any shares or debentures in other companies in which the Company may have at any time a beneficial interest:

(h.) To enter into any contract, agreement, or arrangement with any other person or persons or company or companies for the protection of the property of the Company, and particularly to enter into, for protection only and not for profit, reciprocal contracts of indemnity against loss or damage to the property of the contracting parties only under the plan known as interinsurance:

(i.) To transact and carry on all financial agency or brokerage business, and in particular to carry on the business of real-estate agents, and the business of the investment and lending of money, the buying and selling of property, real and personal, and the collection and receipt of money:

(j.) To carry on the business of insurance agents and (or) brokers for all kinds of insurance, and in particular, but so as not to restrict the generality of the foregoing, to carry on business as agents and (or) brokers for life, fire, accident, employers' liability, workmen's insurance, sickness, burglary, robbery, theft, and fidelity insurance:

(k.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and the intention is that the objects specified in each of the paragraphs in this clause shall, unless otherwise therein provided, be regarded as independent objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company:

(l.) And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause, when not applied to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, political, mercantile, or otherwise, whether incorporated or not incorporated, whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere, whether existing or hereafter to be formed.

1000-fe22

"COMPANIES ACT."

I HEREBY CERTIFY that there have this day been registered, pursuant to the "Companies Act," an office copy of an order of the Honourable Mr. Justice Murphy, dated the 7th day of February, 1940, confirming wholly a special resolution of Mission Public Service Company, Limited, for the alteration of the objects of the Company, and a copy of the memorandum of association of the Company as altered.

The objects of the Company have been extended by the addition of the following clauses:—

"(aaa.) To hold, have, and enjoy all the powers set out in section 22, subsection (1) of the 'Companies Act,' 1936, as if each subparagraph thereof were herein set out:

"(jj.) To exercise the powers and do the things set forth in section 109, subsections (2), (3), (8), (9), and (11) of the 'Water Act,' 1936:

"(kk.) To make and enforce by-laws, rules, and regulations as set out in section 124 of the 'Water Act,' 1936:

"(ll.) To cut off and disconnect any water main or other work through which water may be supplied, and to remove such articles and works as were let on hire to any person who neglects to pay the legal or proper charge for water or any other sum due to the Company:

"(mm.) To exercise the powers set out in and take the benefit of sections 127 to 130, inclusive, of the said 'Water Act,' and to take, have, and enjoy the full benefit of the provisions contained in Division (8) of the said 'Water Act.'"

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this nineteenth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and forty.
